The Most Quoted Verse of the Bible

Every day I hear this particular verse quoted. I hear it around town as people mill about and shop. They will quote the verse as they pick up an item and examine it's price or discuss it's properties. They quote the verse when they see someone they haven't seen in a long time or when told surprising news

I've seen it on magazine covers on the newsstand. If you watch any television at all, you'll soon hear the verse quoted. You will hear it frequently at sporting events. Often it's quoted multiple times in a row by one person repeating it when surprised or shocked.

Young and old alike quote this Bible verse. Children learn it at an early age from their parents and then it's reinforced at school, mass media, and the Internet. I know students hear it at school everyday, and I'm sure multiple times in classes, lunch, and any activity.

If you email or text, you've probably seen someone quote this verse. I've seen the verse printed on shirts. The quoting of this verse is so common, I'm sure I'll hear it before the day is over.

The only problem with all these people and various media quoting the verse is they never finish the verse. They only quote the first three words.

The verse is Psalm 25:2, "O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me."

Baseball season begins tonight with the traditional opening day tomorrow. Each team begins the season tied for first place in their respective divisions. They have hope of a successful year because they are beginning a new season and starting with an unblemished record. The losses of years past will not be taken into account.

As Christians, our lives are like this. Our past mistakes are not held against us when we properly obey and continue to live for the Lord. Unlike baseball, we all can be victorious in the Lord.

Bottom of the Peanut Butter Jar

We all know what it's like to go through a jar of peanut butter. When it's first opened and new, it's easy to get the peanut butter out. When you get to the bottom of the jar, it becomes increasingly difficult.

You finally reach a point where no matter how much you scrape the sides and bottom of the jar with a knife or spoon, there is still some peanut butter remaining. It's impossible to totally remove every single morsel of peanut butter.

Studying the Bible is much the same way. Early in our Christian lives everything in the Bible is new to us, but the longer we study, we discover there are always some things remaining we have not yet learned. There is always more in the Bible for us to learn no matter how long we have been studying the Bible.

Keep scraping the bottom of the jar. You can always get a little more.
