Baseball season begins tonight with the traditional opening day tomorrow. Each team begins the season tied for first place in their respective divisions. They have hope of a successful year because they are beginning a new season and starting with an unblemished record. The losses of years past will not be taken into account.

As Christians, our lives are like this. Our past mistakes are not held against us when we properly obey and continue to live for the Lord. Unlike baseball, we all can be victorious in the Lord.

⁷I have fought a good fight, I have finished [my] course, I have kept the faith: ⁸Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Purity of Heart

I read the other day about a woman who had some extra time at an airport.

Buying a cup of coffee and a small package of cookies, she walked, laden with luggage, to an unoccupied table.

She was reading the morning paper when she became aware of someone rustling at her table. From behind her paper, she was flabbergasted to see a neatly dressed young man helping himself to her cookies. She did not want to make a scene, so she leaned across and took a cookie herself.

A minute or so passed. More rustling. He was helping himself to another cookie. By the time they were down to the last cookie in the package, she was very angry but still could not bring herself to say anything. Then the young man broke the remaining cookie in two, pushed half across to her, ate the other half and left.

Some time later, when the public address system called for her to present her ticket, she was still fuming. Imagine her embarrassment when she opened her handbag, and was confronted by her package of cookies. She had been eating his.

What a generous young man. He was being wronged yet he shared what he had. He even shared his last cookie with her. We need to be careful what we think about others. Things are not always as they seem.
