When we travel the highways of our nation, we cannot help but notice road signs every few feet. These signs contain valuable information for the traveler. Many signs contain life-saving information such as “Stop Ahead,” “Road Closed,” “Yield,” etc. To ignore or doubt the validity of such signs would be foolish, and possibly lead to serious personal injury or death.

The very same people who would not think of ignoring such highway information ignore something far more imperative—the warning “signs” in the Bible. The Bible is filled with warnings of destruction and eternal damnation to those who obey not the Lord. Do not wait to read the “signs” until it is too late.

It is foolish to doubt the truth in a man-made road sign. How much more foolish is it to doubt the warnings of an all-knowing and all-powerful God?

Am I Worthy?

Many times in our lives we must call upon the talents of those trained in fields other than our own. Whether it is a carpenter or a doctor, when we need the talents of others, we expect them to know their profession well. They should be worthy of the name they wear.

If we had to tell a carpenter how to use a hammer or tell a doctor the first procedures to take in an examination, we would probably go elsewhere. They would not be worthy of the name they wear.

Do I wear the name, “Christian?” If so, am I worthy of that name? Do I live my life in such a way that Christ and Christianity are exemplified? Would others be surprised upon hearing that I am a Christian?

Note the words of II Timothy 2:19, “Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.”

A young boy was trying to lift his rather large bicycle after it had fallen over but was having little success. His father noticed the struggle and went outside. He asked his son, “Are you using all your strength?” The son replied that he was. The father responded, “No you’re not, you haven’t asked me to help.”

So often Christians try to face the problems of life without turning to the Lord for help. We are told in I Peter 5:6,7, “Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.”

Little Things

The story is told of a giant tree in Colorado which fell to the ground after having stood majestically on a hill for over 400 years. A mere sapling when Columbus landed in San Salvador, over the centuries it had been struck by lightning 14 times, braved the great windstorms, and even defied an earthquake.

In the end, however, it was killed by some little beetles. Boring under the bark, they chewed away its mighty fibers until one day that lordly king of the forest came thundering down. So, too, apparently insignificant things often make substantial inroads into our spiritual lives, and if left unchecked may cause our downfall. The idle word spoken, the prayer time omitted, and the occasional fleshly pleasure all “spoil” the vineyard much more than we realize. If Satan gets an entering wedge on inconsistency, the leverage he then exerts is greatly increased.
