Am I Worthy?

Many times in our lives we must call upon the talents of those trained in fields other than our own. Whether it is a carpenter or a doctor, when we need the talents of others, we expect them to know their profession well. They should be worthy of the name they wear.

If we had to tell a carpenter how to use a hammer or tell a doctor the first procedures to take in an examination, we would probably go elsewhere. They would not be worthy of the name they wear.

Do I wear the name, "Christian?" If so, am I worthy of that name? Do I live my life in such a way that Christ and Christianity are exemplified? Would others be surprised upon hearing that I am a Christian?

Note the words of II Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

Sunday 9 AM & 6 PM — Wednesday 6 PM

A gallon holds 128 ounces. If one put 138 ounces into a one gallon container, ten ounces will spill over the side. This is a simple idea to grasp. I believe the same concept is part of the reason attendance suffers, especially on Sunday and Wednesday evening. Not only attendance, but participation in the work of the church is certainly not engaged in as it should be.

In our society we have more than enough material possessions and activities with which to fill our time— so many that we are unable to contain them in the 168 hours we have each week. Just as with the gallon container, if we try to fill our week with more than 168 hours, some other activity must be sacrificed. How often is it that one's service to the Lord is that which is sacrificed?

Let us fill our lives with more activities for the Lord. When we do, we will naturally rid ourselves of things that steal our time and service from the Lord.

Give the Lord what is right,
not what is left.

The Middle of the Bible

Did you know that. . .

- Psalm 118 is the middle of the entire Bible?
- Psalm 117, before Psalm 118, is the shortest chapter in the Bible?
- Psalm 119, right after Psalm 118, is the longest chapter in the Bible?
- The Bible has 594 chapters before Psalm 118 and 594 chapters after Psalm 118?
- If you add up all the chapters except Psalm 118, you get a total of 1188 chapters?
- "1188" or "Psalm 118:8" is the middle verse of the entire Bible?

Consider the message of this central verse of the Bible, Psalm 118:8, "It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man." Let's make this thought central to our lives.
