In Memory

Tomorrow is Memorial Day, a day set aside to honor the memory of those who have preceded us in death. This is an admirable action, and one that should be continued, but often we wait until it's too late to express our love for someone. It's common to hear someone express remorse because they failed to tell a family member how much they loved them.

We should bestow this love and honor while our loved ones are still alive. Let's not wait until their death to give them flowers. Let's bestow "flowers" of loving words and actions while our loved ones are alive and can enjoy them.

And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.

The singing of a hymn should be a great experience for Christians. A hymn can be a prayer, praise, or an invitation to others. How seriously do we take the words we sing?

Do we sing "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and pray only a few minutes each day?

Do we sing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and wait to be drafted to the Lord's work?

Do we sing "Oh, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing" and don't use the ones we have to speak for Christ?

Do we sing "I Love to Tell the Story" and seldom mention Jesus to anybody?

Do we sing "Serve the Lord with Gladness" and complain about all we have to do?

Do we sing "Cast My Burden on the Lord" and then worry continuously?

Do we sing "The Gospel is for All" and never try to take the Gospel to anyone?

Paul wrote in I Corinthians 14:15, "What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also." He wrote again in Colossians 3:16, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

When a child is young, he or she may want to do many things that look enjoyable such as playing in the street, eating candy and junk food instead of the healthy food needed, etc. The child may not want to attend school, take a bath, or any number of things.

The parents constrain the child to do the activities anyway, because the parents know they are for the good of the child.

The commandments of the Lord are like this. Many people may question and ask “why,” but in Deuteronomy 6:24, the Lord told the Israelites, “And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as [it is] at this day.”

Let’s always obey the Lord wholly. It is to our benefit.

—God’s Plan of Salvation—

1. Hear the Gospel (Romans 10:14)
2. Believe on the Lord and His Word (Mark 16:16; John 8:24)
3. Repent of your sins (Luke 13:3,5; Acts 17:30)
4. Confess Christ (Matthew 10:32,33; Luke 12:8; Romans 10:9)
5. Be baptized (immersed in water) for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38; Mark 16:16; Galatians 3:27; I Peter 3:21)
6. Live a faithful, dedicated life (Revelation 2:10; II Peter 1:5-10)
